CHURCH AUTHORIZES $150,000 FUND FOR BUILDING

First Presbyterian Congregation Takes Action at Last Night's Meeting

Authorization for the raising of at least $150,000 was given last night by the congregation of the First Presbyterian church to the finance committee for the purpose of erecting the new church building on the site already purchased at the corner of Louise and Harvard streets. At the business meeting last night action was also taken instructing the building committee to proceed with the architect to perfect and carry out the plans already set forth.

The plans call for a brick structure of Gothic architecture, with separate church auditorium and Sunday school units. The edifice will occupy almost the entire lot, which is 150x150, and the church proper will have a seating capacity of 1400, and the Sunday school departments of about 1000.

Action Is Unanimous

A splendid spirit pervaded the large audience which was present at the meeting, and the action taken was overwhelmingly unanimous. The present plant and equipment at Broadway and Cedar street is altogether inadequate to carry on the rapidly-growing work of this congregation, according to those in charge. The committees having the matter in charge are bending every energy toward the early beginning of the building, and with the united and enthusiastic congregation behind them it is expected that the work will proceed rapidly to completion.

A picture of the proposed new church building and an outline of the plans appeared in The Glendale Evening News of September 10.

At the business meeting last night Rev. W. E. Edmonds was elected moderator of the meeting and Elder James W. Cooper was chosen as clerk.

A. R. ROSE HOME REPORTED ROBBED

Valuables Taken by Thieves; Carpenters Lose Tools; Automobile Crashes

Burglars are busy in the vicinity of Glendale!

A. R. Rose of 211 North Acacia street, Eagle Rock, reports that his home was broken into and looted. He listed as stolen practically every imaginable trinket of value which the average householder possesses.

Four carpenters working on a job at the corner of Maple avenue and Adams street had all the tools stolen that a thief could carry away. The workmen this morning had to await new equipment before proceeding with construction work under way. A. B. Bartley, Jesse Shell, Clark and Plummer were the names of the victims.

John Rehberg of 1112 East Harvard street lost a level and other tools, he reported, and Mrs. W. E. Empey of 444 Milford street reported that a wheel had been stolen from her son.

Automobile Accidents

Three motor crashes also were reported to the police during the last 24 hours, E. S. Chapman of Fellows reported that his car was hit by a truck driven by C. Mazzola at the intersection of San Fernando and Los Feliz Roads this morning.

C. C. Martin of Los Angeles and F. C. Bogardus of Pasadena owned machines which had a duel at Orange street and Broadway without serious results last evening.

Ray Neville of Los Angeles drove his car into one driven by Mrs. Gertrude Helwig of 327 Fairview at Broadway and Louise street yesterday afternoon.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

Public indorsement of the school bond election will be asked of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, the City Council, Parent-Teachers' Association and fraternal orders according to plans formulated at the Intermediate school last night by Superintendent R. D. White, H. V. Henry and Captain W. C. Wattles. They also decided to request the Glendale Theatre and the Palace Grand to display slides announcing the coming election. The two members of the publicity committee present adjourned subject to call.

Waunita Emery Back From North; Guest at Many Social Affairs

Miss Waunita Emery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery of 329 North Kenwood street, returned on Tuesday night from a five weeks' visit with friends at Berkeley and Oakland.

At the former city she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Smith and at the latter city of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Latter, both of whom entertained in her honor.

Miss Emery enjoyed many delightful motor trips around San Francisco and had a most enjoyable visit.

RECORD CROWD IS PRESENT AT FAIR

San Fernando Exposition to Be Kept Open on Sunday, Is Decision Reached

Glendale members of the Tuesday Afternoon club who are doing their part in making the San Fernando Valley fair a success this morning left for the fair grounds with additional provender to feed the hosts, for there are record crowds in attendance. Mrs. A. H. Montgomery estimates that fully 20,000 visitors saw the great agricultural, industrial and domestic displays Wednesday.

On account of the great popularity of this first Los Angeles county fair, it has been decided to keep the exhibits open Sunday and thereby afford thousands of city folk the opportunity of seeing "the market basket of Los Angeles" at its best. Two bands, a horse show and a hundred more attractions provide entertainment every moment.

W. P. Bullock, who resides on the Verdugo ranch here, is greatly elated over the fact that he won all prizes in the Jersey division of milk cattle. "Walnut Park Noble," Kansas City stock, was responsible for the blue ribbons, according to Mr. Bullock, who stated he had but little competition.

ENTERTAIN FOR SCHOOL

A very unique and interesting entertainment was given last night under the auspices of the Broadway Parent-Teachers' association by Mr. Rudeen of Los Angeles, who showed moving pictures of the life of Abraham Lincoln and also pictures of birds. The part of the entertainment which especially appealed to the children present was the very clever imitation of bird calls given by Mr. Rudeen. He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Baron. The proceeds from the entertainment will be used for the purpose of beautifying the school grounds with shrubbery, etc.

MISS EDITH EWINS IS BRIDE

Miss Edith Ewins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ewins, formerly of Verdugo road, Glendale, and who for the past year have been residents of Ontario, was married August 30, 1921, to Henry Carney of Independence, California, formerly of Los Angeles. The wedding ceremony took place in St. Thomas' Catholic church at Ontario, Rev. Father Martin, an old time friend of the bridegroom officiating. Mrs. Carney was graduated from Glendale Union high school and has many friends in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Carney will make their home in Independence.

HOLLIS MOYSE BACK HOME

Hollis Moyse, son of Prof. George U. Moyse, principal of the high school is home for a few days having ipst returned from a summer engineering camp in Virginia. He will attend the California College of Technology this fall and study chemical engineering.

The young man is getting up in the world—he stands six feet two inches and his dad has to look up to him now. He has grown so much in the last year that old friends have to look twice to make certain of his identity.

TRACT PROVES POPULAR

W. H. Armstrong, manager of beautiful Mountain View tract which has recently been opened between here and Burbank, today reported to The Glendale Evening News that there are but a few choice lots remaining. An intensive week of selling has made the prospects greatly improved for the rapid building up of this close-in section, according to Mr. Armstrong.

H. BUTTS FUNERAL FRIDAY

Funeral services for Henry W. Butts, formerly of Glendale, and who passed away at Long Beach Tuesday, September 20, 1921, will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Little Church of the Flowers. The L. G. Scovern Undertaking company is in charge.

SAYS JAPAN WILL NOT INTRODUCE RACIAL EQUALITY

TOKIO, Sept. 22.—Japan will not introduce the question of racial equality into the conference on limitation of armaments, according to the Kokumin, Japanese newspaper. The paper said that the Japanese government had reached such a decision because the United States had intimated it would approve the Morris-Shidehara immigration agreement which was negotiated several months ago.

LINEBERGER DECLARES HIS OFFICE IS IN NO DANGER

LONG BEACH, Sept. 22.—Congressman Walter F. Lineberger, representative of the Ninth congressional district, in a message to constituents today declared his seat to be in no way endangered by a resolution introduced in the house by Representative Garrett, Tennessee, requiring the house judiciary committee to ascertain the number of members holding army commissions and to investigate whether or not holding of such commissions invalidated their seats.

INDEPENDENT STEELS OPEN HEAVY ON N. Y. EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—There was a heaviness apparent in independent steels in the early trading on the stock market today. Bethlehem B. opened off 1¼ at 52½, while the first sale of steel common was up ¼ at 78⅛ and the stock quickly dipped below 78. Crucible was off ¼ at 61. There was little change manifest in the rest of the list. Mexican Petroleum, after opening unchanged at 100¾, rallied above 101 and then sold off to 100½. The rails acted better with the exception of Canadian Pacific. A big block of that stock was taken at 115⅝, off ¼.

TOTAL DEAD IN GERMANY'S EXPLOSION MAY BE 4,000

BERLIN, Sept. 22.—Casualties in the explosion disaster at Oppau will amount to more than 4,000 killed and injured, it was estimated today, as rescue parties penetrated the fogs of poison gas which hung over the scene of the tragedy. Nearly 1,000 bodies already have been recovered. More than 2,500 injured are being treated at hospitals. French troops are guarding the area. One report said a company of French troops stationed at the factory was wiped out by the explosion yesterday. Only a great gaping chasm marks the scene of the initial explosion.

ARBUCKLE SCHEDULED TO APPEAR IN COURT TODAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle was to appear in the women's court here at 1 p. m. today for preliminary examination on the charge of murder. His wife, Minta Durfee and her mother were to be by his side. Arbuckle was not to be put on the stand today. A courtroom crowded with women was to hear what promised to develop the most sensational testimony heard in a San Francisco court for years. Judge Lazarus ruled that women should be first admitted, and it was certain no men, outside of judge, jury, lawyers, court attaches and newspapermen would find places.

HARDING IS REPORTED PLEASED AT NEW OUTLOOK

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—President Harding was frankly pleased today at several rifts appearing in the storm clouds which have hung rather menacingly over republican affairs for the last few weeks. Reasons assigned for the new feeling of optimism are: 1—The republican victory in the New Mexico senatorial election; 2—Dwindling of democratic opposition to the Harding-Hughes treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary; 3—Decision of Senator Underwood, democratic senate leader to back the administration throughout the disarmament conference regardless of party differences; 4—Prospects of early action on tax revision. Much criticism of the alleged inactivity of congress reached the ears of the presidential party during the recent trip and as a result President Harding has decided to make no further out of town engagements for the present so that he can spend more time on the job in Washington.

STATE-WIDE OIL FIELD STRIKE PLANNED, IS CLAIMED

TAFT, Cal., Sept. 22.—Plans to extend the present strike of oil field workers in the Kern county district to all oil fields in the state were reported being made today by the Oil Fields Workers' Union, with headquarters here. Definite decision on a state-wide strike, which would involve some 25,000 oil fields workers, pipe line employes and refinery men, was expected to be reached tomorrow. "If we call a state-wide strike, tying up all oil fields, pipe lines and refineries, the federal government undoubtedly will take action in one manner or another," was the declaration at strike headquarters. The strikers declared the purpose of their action has been to force the oil operators to permit the government to underwrite their working agreements and any federal action would be satisfactory, it was indicated. Martin Madsen, secretary to Governor Stephens, arrived in the oil fields today to make an investigation for the governor. Stephens himself is in the mountains of Trinity county, where he cannot get in personal touch with the situation.

METHODIST CHURCH YEARLY BUDGET IS INCREASED

Institution on Fine Business Basis; Extensive Program Outlined by Leaders

The First Methodist family gathered 400 strong at the church last night for the annual dinner.

An appetizing menu was prepared and served by the women of the church. The bill of fare included hot meat, Spanish rice, coffee, ice cream and cake and other delicacies spread upon seven long tables and several smaller ones.

"The financial condition of the church is the best in its history," remarked W. A. Tower of the financial committee, in discussing denominational matters at the close of the repast. "Its plans for the coming year are the most progressive and comprehensive. The program, if carried out, will be a credit to every one participating. The budget for last year amounted to $170 a week and will be $215 for the coming year."

On Business Basis

Comment was made by Mr. Tower upon the business-like manner in which the church has been able to meet its obligations during the past church year. He stated that all expenses had been met in full without the necessity of making a special appeal to the congregation for additional support. Those present expressed approval of the finance committee.

Pledge cards were passed to the members of the church in attendance last night and a number promised the payment of specific sums during the coming year. It was announced that a committee would visit every Methodist family in Glendale soon to ascertain their attitude towards meeting church obligations and their probable participation in church activities.

Under Four Captains

This committee consists of more than forty of the men of the denomination under four captains, who are: B. F. Geiger, C. W. Ingledue, T. A. Wright and W. F. Tower. It was remarked that Methodists were not only good eaters but good givers as well.

Dr. C. M. Crist expressed enthusiasm about the plans for the coming year. He made the statement that without abating its spiritual activities in the least the church proposes to enlarge its usefulness by providing the best of uplifting entertainment for both young and old along musical and literary lines. He feels that a church which is only open on Sunday is only partially fulfilling its mission and that the investment involved in the Methodist church is too large to permit the edifice to remain closed six days a week. He expressed a desire that the church might be made more useful and the scene of many wholesale activities.

Spirited Song Service

Carl C. Seitter, who has been given the title of director of religious education by the local church, was present at the banquet. He is a graduate of the University of Southern California and has been connected with the Glendale church for the past three months outlining his new work. He is establishing an office at the church and expects to announce definite plans before long.

A spirited song service, led by Dr. Joseph Marple, was a feature of the program. A fervent prayer was offered by Dr. A. J. Drury of Los Angeles, father of Mrs. C. M. Crist.

From San Francisco Mr. and Mrs. Mellus will continue their trip to Sacramento where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Newbert. Mr. Newbert is president of the fish and game commission of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Mellus intend to be present at the "South Bend Duck Club" in time for the opening of the duck season. They will also go to Yreka to a fishing and hunting club. They expect to catch a quantity of fish there and also some deer. Mr. and Mrs. Mellus will be gone about a month.

Assistant Secretary of Local Chamber of Commerce to Tell How It's Done

E. F. Sanders, assistant secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, will be a speaker next Monday night at a reorganization meeting of the Compton chamber. He goes there as the guest of Ben F. Schouboe, organizer.

Mr. Sanders' subject will be "Advantages of a Chamber of Commerce." From his remarkable record here in the way of membership, it is to be presumed that he will give the Compton people some good advice.

On the same night Secretary James M. Rhoades of the local chamber will attend a meeting in Whittier.

RESCUED FROM STARVING

COOS BAY, Ore., Sept. 22. — Its crew barely saved from starvation by the timely arrival of the steamer President, the Norwegian four-masted schooner Nottingham, 96 days out of Buenos Aires for Port Townsend, was reported far out to sea today and with a southeast breeze well in hand. The Nottingham appeared off this port late Tuesday and signaled for food. Captain M. J. Benson of the coast guard station was informed that the schooner's crew had been on rations for days but that their food supplies had been completely exhausted.

Captain Jensen's efforts to put a ton of food on board failed because of the stiff gale sweeping the coast. The schooner drifted out to set but managed to get in touch with the President, which gave the wind jammer ten days' rations. A passing steam schooner reported the Nottingham's position to the Englewood wireless station this morning.

FOR MR. AND MRS. G. NEIL

A party of friends of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Neil of 360 West Colorado street surprised them Tuesday night, September 20, the occasion being in celebration of their third wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Neil had been invited for an automobile ride and when they were ready to start, after many delays, guests began arriving one by one. The evening was spent in playing cards, after which refreshments were served. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. William McNillan, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Downing, Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean, Mrs. Nellie Squires and Miss Jennie Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. Neil.

ARRANGE FOOTBALL GAMES

The football schedule for the coming games probably will be arranged this afternoon in South Pasadena by faculty representatives of high schools in the Central League of Southern California. This consists of the cities of South Pasadena, Alhambra, Franklin, Monrovia, Covina and Citrus, as well as Glendale. The local school will be represented by Coach Normal C. Hayhurst and either Principal George U. Moyse or Vice Principal A. L. Ferguson.

LILLIAN TRACY TO VISIT

Miss Lillian Tracy, who is attending the Immaculate Heart college in Hollywood, will be home tomorrow to spend the month end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Tracy of 302 North Isabel street.

FIVE ARRESTED IN RAID ON ALLEGED 'LIQUOR RING'

Glendale Men Are Involved In Charges by J. L. Browne and Federal Officers

A round-up of what the authorities allege to be a "booze ring" terminated this morning at the foot of the Mt. Wilson trail when federal prohibition officers, Dan O'Leary and C. H. Wheeler, accompanied by James L. Browne of the Glendale Patrol and Fire Dispatch, took Ernest Thede and Charles (Chuck) Wilson into custody.

They are detained in the Burbank city jail with Guy Wells, a former Glendale police officer, Ed Roberts, and William Kyncy at whose home a gay party recently took place. Boyd Dennis and others who attended the party are under surveillance, it is said.

Face Federal Charges

All except Kyncy are charged with illegally selling and transporting liquor. Kyncy is held under the provisions of the Volstead act, according to the federal prohibition commissioner's office this afternoon.

It is claimed by the officers that bootleggers and moonshiners have been held up and robbed by the alleged ring of approximately $1700 in booze and cash. An old winery and an Italian's ranch between here and Burbank are two places where their operations were checked this week, the offiecrs say.

The officers declare that two of the quintet impersonated both federal and local police officers in obtaining bootleg booze. Several serious charges face the five men, it is stated by James L. Browne, who has been working on the case since September 6.

Police officials today were expressing surprise that Guy Wells was under arrest, as he left the force only a month ago. Friends of "Bill" Kyncy also couldn't understand the strange twist of fate which has turned him from a complaining witness in a petty theft case to the defendant in a federal prohibition case.

Others Suspected, Claim

In the chase after Thede and Wilson last night and early today, Special Agent O'Leary completely ruined his clothes in the brush along Mt. Wilson trail.

Their capture is said to complete the case and its ramifications may further stir Glendale it is hinted.

Several people are under surveillance and the prisoners are held incommunicado by the Burbank police until the federal officers have completed their investigation.

AUTO CLUB URGES LAW BE ENFORCED

Lights Must Be Placed Upon Obstructions In Streets, Plea to Authorities

The Automobile Club of Southern California is asking that all city authorities enforce the law requiring lights be placed on obstructions in streets.

This is the result of numerous complaints made to the club by automobilists who have run into piles of lumber or sand left in the streets at night without lights to indicate their location.

Contractors generally know their responsibility in such cases and it is likely that in most instances failure to observe the law is due to owners who are ignorant of the law, rather than to contractors.

SHOTGUN SQUAD IN ACTION

For once in its young life the Glendale police department made use of its shotgun squad. A whole case of sawed-off cannons have been reposing in the central station so long that it has been hinted they were only good for hunting.

But last night the call came in "Burglars at the First National bank." Yes, the burglar alarm had sounded and everybody believed that bank robbers were raiding the vaults. Then's when the shotgun squad appeared only to find workmen trying to repair the mechanism.

URGE PARLIAMENT TO MEET

LONDON, Sept. 22.—Labor members of parliament today addressed a letter to the speaker of the house of commons urging that he reconvene parliament at once on account of the serious unemployment situation in England. At the same time, a telegram to that effect was sent to Lloyd George.

Guy H. Gibbs Sells Good Paint for Less

Civic beautification is a hobby with Guy H. Gibbs, the paint dealer at 710 East Broadway. He calls attention to the spick and span appearance of Glendale homes and takes a personal pride in the appearance of the city. Mr. Gibbs is satisfied that paint is a valuable covering for homes, for, he points out, paint is really insurance. Good paint means longer life for a house, he says, and for that reason he takes pride in the fact he sells good paint at a low price. His announcement appears in the classified columns of today's issue of The Glendale Evening News.

H. Godelia Buys In Verdugo Woodlands

H. C. Godelia, formerly a resident of Evanston, Ill., has purchased a beautiful building site in Verdugo Woodlands and has ordered plans drawn for a six-room California bungalow. However, it will follow the design of his eastern home—someting quite unusual here.

TRY TO SAY THIS ONE

VISALIA — "Llanfairwllgwyngyllgoeryckwryndrobbwllanandyslwogogoch."

"Say it again."

This is the conversation which took place between J. Frank Knox, registration deputy for the alien poll tax, and William Herbert Brown, traveling supervising mechanic for the Southern California Edison company, when Brown was asked to name his place of birth. Brown said it again, but it didn't do any good, so he finally had to write it. He gave his oath that the fifty-six letters arranged as they are above represented the sounds that he makes when he names the "old home town" in Wales, England. Knox offered to compromise with the name of the nearest town to that, but found that Brown could only pronounce that one, but couldn't spell it.

AVOID BEING IRRITANT

Some folks are just plain irritants. You don't know why it is you don't like them. But you surely don't like them. By word and deed they get under your skin and you feel mean at being so touchy. But it can't be helped—they irritate. Do your best to get beyond the irritation stage. You can put up with a lot when you train yourself to it. In the end you may find that part of the irritation belongs to yourself. Come on. Buck up.

Nimble Finger Club Members Celebrate First Anniversary

The first anniversary of the Nimble Finger Club, Daughters of Veterans, was celebrated last night at the home of Mrs. Hattie Tiffany, 129 West Los Feliz Road. While various articles of fancy work were nearing completion, work for the year was discussed with interest, and during the evening a letter, full of humor and otherwise, was written to an absent member, Miss Mildred McKee, who is attending Berkeley. Each member added her bit to the letter.

Later in the evening refreshments of delicious apple pie, cocoa and coffee were served to the seventeen members present by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Susie Peck and Mrs. Winona Crawford. A large white birthday cake, which had been made by Mrs. Peck, and which was decorated with one red candle, was cut by Mrs. Queen Danner and very much enjoyed.

Little Flora Pixley was awarded a beautiful basket design comforter.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Miss Ruth Ryan, 332 West Acacia avenue.

Members of the Daughters of Veterans are planning to hold a food sale at 107 North Brand boulevard Saturday afternoon.

Poor Old Dobbin Is Headed for Museum

NEW YORK—"The horse will be virtually only a subject for natural history museum in the United States within a decade," F. W. Fenn, secretary of the national motor truck committee, National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, declared today.

"This animal, which has served mankind for ages, is disappearing so rapidly as a result of his displacement by motor machinery that even now he is almost a curiosity in the larger cities.

"The value of the horse has depreciated to such an extent that thousands of farmers are holding onto them merely because they can't sell them, and when those they own at present lose their usefulness, they will be replaced by automobiles and tractors.

"Of course, the racehorse will remain with us, but in numbers he is negligible."

Fenn said the forthcoming report of the New York board of health will show there are approximately 10,614 less horses and 1,784 fewer stables in New York City today than in 1919.

"Other localities besides New York report similar reductions in the horse population," he said. "Registered stallions in Wisconsin decreased from 2,437 in 1918 to 1,688 in 1920. Ohio had 965,000 horses in 1917 and only 862,000 in 1919. One hundred and sixty horses were recently sold in Portland, Oregon, for chicken feed.

"There were approximately 25,000,000 horses in our country two years ago. If these could have been disposed of, automobiles and motor trucks substituted, the value of the wheat that could have been raised on the land then required to feed horses would have been sufficient to pay our national debt, including the Liberty Bond issues to date."

Alberta Farm Premier Started Life in City

EDMONTON, Alta.—Herbert Greenfield, elected to head the political party of the United Farmers of Alberta when it defeated the existing provincial government and who will become premier of Alberta when the next parliament sits, is a city boy who has made good on the farm. His career is a romance of the soil.

Greenfield was born in Winchester, England, fifty-two years ago. When 23, he came to Canada. Though he had neither capital nor rural experience, he determined to become a farmer. He hired out as a farm-hand in Ontario. When he had accumulated a little money and experience, he bought a farm. Stories of bonanza farming on the prairies came to him and, selling out, he trekked to Alberta in 1906 and homesteaded a farm. He lived in a dugout. He had little more than health, a plow and a team of horses. He worked from dawn to dark. In a few years, a mansion had supplanted the sod hut. A village of barns, granaries and outhouses grew up about his home. His pastures were filled with cattle, sheep and hogs. His cultivated lands extended to the horizon. The poor settler had become a rich and influential farmer.

Now that he has been chosen for practically the highest honor the province has to bestow, friends declare the qualities that made him a successful statesman.

Veteran infantrymen believe that Private John McGregor of the Second division, has established a new world record for hiking with a forty-five-pound pack. The official report shows that he covered the last 500 miles of the march in fourteen days, an average of more than thirty-five miles a day. The entire distance covered was 1100 miles, from San Antonio to Denver, and was made in forty marching days.

A British oil concern is using the airplane to locate oil in Venezuela. Oil bearing lands in that part of the world are distinguished by the partial destruction of vegetation and photographs are taken of all likely looking sections of the country, as well as means of approach by waterways or forest paths.

Officials Are Busy All Day Showing Visitors Around; Public Invited Tonight

Marking the formal opening of the First Savings Bank of Glendale, that new institution is holding open house from 9 o'clock this morning till 9 o'clock tonight in its banking home at 104 East Broadway.

"Come in and get acquainted" is the slogan of the day, and the bank's officers have been busily engaged showing the many visitors about their commodious quarters which have been completely equipped to handle the various services which the new institution is offering its patrons.

Opens First Account

The first account in the new bank was opened by E. W. Reaben of 339 West Lomita for his young son, S. Poston Reaben. The honor of receiving the first account fell to William A. Goss, the assistant cashier.

A number of fine floral pieces were received by the bank today, some coming from other financial institutions, others from friends here.

Refreshments are being served during the day and the bank's officials are being congratulated by hundreds of Glendale people.

Every one opening a savings account of $1 or more today will be presented with a handsome leather memorandum book with the owner's name stamped in gold on the cover as a souvenir of the opening day.

One feature which is attracting particular attention is the new safe deposit vault constructed at a total cost, including equipment, of $18,500. A six-inch steel door with triple time lock and weighing eleven tons guards the entrance, and the walls of the vault are of the heaviest concrete reinforced with steel.

Glendale Institution

The First Savings bank is distinctly a Glendale institution, all of its stock being owned by the stockholders of the First National bank of this city, and its officers and directors are all local men who are well known in Glendale business and financial circles. Their personal integrity and wide business experience assures for this new bank a careful, efficient management and a successful future.

The officers and directors are C. C. Cooper, president; R. F. Kitterman, vice president; Ed M. Lee, vice president; E. U. Emery, vice president; William A. Goss. assistant cashier and secretary; E. L. Osborn, Jr., assistant cashier; W. W. Lee, H. S. Webb, M. P. Harrison, George T. Paine, E. L. Osborn, Jr., William A. Goss, E. U. Emery, R. F. Kitterman and C. C. Cooper, directors.

Captain Fonck Says French Aviation Is Now at Standstill

By WILFRID FLEISHER
United Press Staff Correspondent

PARIS—Aviation in France is at a standstill, according to Captain Rene Fonck, France's greatest ace, new deputy in charge of aeronautics in the Chamber, and there will be no change in the situation until the government has liquidated the large fleet of aeroplanes left over from the war.

Captain Fonck downed 126 German planes, the official records of the army credit him with seventy-five, the number which he brought down within the French lines. He fought over 500 air duels and totaled 2,500 hours' flight during his war service. He has been decorated by almost all the Allied governments and is a grand officer of the Legion of Honor.

"The government was left with 7,000 army planes on its hands when the armistice was signed," Captain Fonck told the United Press. "In addition to this, Germany delivered 3,000 planes to us. Until we liquidate this war stock there will be little chance for recovery in the building line. Our factories could not keep going if it was not for foreign orders."

"Our army aerial appropriation for 1922 is 300,000,000 francs. In addition to this the government has appropriated 40,000,000 francs as a subsidy for private companies to encourage the development of civil aviation. Without this subsidy the companies could not operate.

"We are handicapped in France by short distances, a two-hour flight lands us in London or Brussels, five hours takes us into Italy. In the United States you have wonderful possibilities for cross-country flying."

Captain Fonck expects to sail for the United States in October to study aviation conditions.

SOME KICK IN THIS ONE, BOY

RED BLUFF—Here is an anonymous lumberjack's recipe for home brew: Chase a bullfrog three miles and gather the hops; add malted milk and corn plasters; simmer and turn toward the east; strain through an I. W. W.'s sock to keep it from working; pour in brown bottles dropping in a live grasshopper in each to furnish the kick.

Communism Is Still Goal of Soviet, Is Claim of Spokesman

By LLOYD ALLEN
United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON—Simon - pure Communism is still the goal of Russia.

Lenine has never for one moment forsaken the "red" doctrines of the Bolsheviki party for the "white" principles of western Europe.

Today Soviet Russia is in the second stage of its development; transition from the first period of Bolshevism into the second stage was generally misunderstood throughout the world. It was erroneously announced that "Lenine had turned white."

Official representatives of Lenine here in London; members of the Russian trade delegatiton, are authority for the foregoing.

Their spokesman explained to me Lenine's present aims as follows:

Lenine always realized pure communism cannot be accomplished by mere legislation; it must come by development.

"When the Bolsheviki party came into power, after the downfall of Kerensky, private trading was forbidden in Russia.

"This, however, was not ordered for the sole purpose of advancing communism; private trading was halted in order to concentrate all business in the hands of the government, just as private trading was restricted and controlled in Germany and other European countries during the war.

"Russia was in the midst of civil war; more disastrous in its effect on a nation than war with a foreign enemy. Meanwhile Russia also had foreign foes. Hundreds of thousands of armed men were invading Russian soil on many battle fronts.

Enter Second Period

"This dire emergency lasted from the latter part of 1918 until the winter of 1921.

"Now we are entering the second period. There's a prospect of peace today. We are starting the gigantic job of rehabilitating Russia after seven years of terrific warfare, wherein the casualties far exceed those of any belligerent in the world-war.

"We never intended nationalizing the small factories. Our aim is to control the big enterprises like steel works and corporations that occupy in Russia the same degree of importance as the great oil syndicate in America.

"Fact is, we are today returning numerous small plants to private initiative. But meanwhile the government is starting out building up a colossal system of state industrialism.

"The Russian state is the biggest employer in great Russia; likewise the state is the greatest buyer, and when our transport system has been repaired and we can move stuff to seaboard, the state will be the biggest seller, not only in Russia but in the whole world.

"Through the All-Russian Co-Operative society, called Arcos, for short, the products of 150,000,000 Russian workers will be sold.

"Lenine and his staff are today creating state capitalism which will finance and develop state industrialism on a different basis from pre-war ideals.

"The new industrialism in Russia will aim to serve the special interests of the Russian people.

"Let me illustrate. We are creating a state boot and shoe industry. This enterprise will not compete for foreign trade. It will not specialize in fancy shoes for the boulevards of Paris or the Mayfair district of London. Our factory is going to make cheap substantial boots for the hard usage of Russia.

Profits For Russians

"We think it waste of Russia's resources to think first of foreign trade. We beleve that fallacy was one of the leading faults of pre-war industrialism in Russia.

"Other industries will be created along the same lines; to produce goods for Russians with the Russian people acquiring profits.

Snake Successor to Office Cat at Ely

ELY, Nev., Sept. 7.—The office cat of the Ely Times has been ousted by the office snake.

The snake not only succeeded in routing the cat, but for the last several days has assumed the duties of official rat catcher, and has laid low several of the most wary and familiar of the whiskered vermin that have frequented the office for years.

The snake unheralded installed himself a few days ago apparently with every intention of making it a permanent job.

Among Other Things, Fighters Take Ring Names; Reasons Vary

The law of the land requires that when a person appears in court under any circumstances that the name he or she had at birth must be designated in any legal papers. In these days if a boxer should be haled into court there is a chance that said boxer may not remember his baptismal names. Boxers and actors are in a similar class when it comes to using assumed names. Actors for centuries have considered it a part of their profession to play under some name other than their own. With the stage folk this system can be traced back many hundreds of years, but in so far as it can be traced the system of using assumed names by boxers goes back only about one hundred years.

The first boxer who can be traced as using a nom de plume was William Thompson of Nottingham, England. As William Thompson none of the present day followers of boxing know who this man is, but we refer know who this man is, but when we refer to him as "Bendigo," anyone throughout this country who knows anything of the history of boxing will immediately recognize him. It was about 1835 that Bendigo flourished and he won the world title in 1839 by defeating Deaf Burke. Since that time it has been the custom for boxers all over the world to go under assumed names and of later years some of the boxers have become so famous under their changed names many of the public fail to recognize, for instance Geary Steffens as being the same as the once world lightweight champion, Willie Ritchie.

Jake Kilrain, who fought John L Sullivan for the title, changed his name. He was born under the name of Joseph Killion. Another man whose name figures on the world championship list back in 1850 was a young fellow known as "The Tipton Slasher" and his real name was Perry. He held the title on and off from 1850 to 1857 and was eventually relieved of the belt that year by Tom Sayers.

Some Present Day Boxers

Getting down to the boxers of the present day who are known there are a thousand and one with assumed names. Freddie Welsh, for example, is not Welsh at all, but Freddie Thomas. He come from Wales and was asked one day the meaning of "Welsh." He replied, "I'm Welsh" and a newspaper man overhearing thought he said his name was Welsh and it stuck.

Johnny Dundee has a Scotch name but he was born at Sharkai, Italy, under the name of Joseph Carrora. Jack Britton would never be known at a public meeting in his street clothes if he were introduced by his right name of William Breslin. Everybody following boxing knows of "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien, but everybody does not know that his right name is Joseph O'Hagan. Then there is "Kid" Williams, former bantam champion of the world, who in his family circle answers to the name of Jonathan Butenko and his parents brought him to this country from Denmark.

In San Francisco there is a motorman on the street cars who once had ambitions in the heavyweight division known as Charlie Miller. His family name is Joseph Costlemagna. Here are some more well-known boxers, George Chip was George Chipulanis; Joe Rivers was Joseph Rivera; Kid McCoy was Norman Selby; Young Corbett was William Rothwell; Charley White was Charley Anchowitz; the late Eddie Campie was Edward de Campus; Leach Cross was Louis Wallach; Jack Dillon was Ernest Cutler Rice, and a thousand and one others could be mentioned.

Ethel—"Yes, but we aren't going to be married till tomorrow."

MYSTERY STILL UNSOLVED

SEATTLE—The riddle of why a person would voluntarily choose to become an undertaker has only been deepened. It is apparently a very popular calling. In a recent campaign conducted by a newspaper here to secure jobs for unemployed a position as undertaker's assistant was advertised.

"Please tell the boys we don't need any more undertakers," the newspaper was advised within a few hours. More than a score of men, giving their regular trades as everything from truck drivers to motion picture operators had applied for the position.

LASTING COLOR FOUND?

VISALIA, Cal.—German control of the dye industry is threatened by experiments in the production of dyes from the Tulare county pomegranites. Chemists working at Lindsay, the center of the pomegranite region, declare that the pulp of the fruit contains all the properties to give a lasting color such as has been hitherto imperfectly developed in America. Should the tests now being conducted by government experts prove successful, it is probable that the district will become a station for dye production that will oust a large number of the German dyes from the market, it is said.

FRIGHTENS IT TO DEATH

UKIAH—Edgar Dutton, county horticultural commissioner, believes he is getting a great reputation among the animals of this district. While driving near here he met a ground squirrel, his special aversion in the line of animals, basking in the road. On seeing Dutton the squirrel made a wild dash for the bank. It had nearly reached the top, when it wavered and fell back in the road.

"Death by fright, brought on by seeing Mr. Dutton," was the verdict of the corner's jury after Dutton had brought the deceased in just to prove he wasn't telling a yarn to boost his own stock.

KINDERGARTEN CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR NEW YEAR

Miss Sue Crump Is Chosen for President; Plan to Keep In Touch With Advance

The first regular meeting of the Glendale Kindergarten club was held Tuesday afternoon in the kindergarten room of the Cerritos avenue school.

It is the aim of the club to keep in touch with the most advanced movements in kindergarten work, and it was with this in mind that plans were discussed for meetings for the coming year for the members, all of whom are local kindergarten teachers.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:

Miss Sue Crump, president; Miss Dorothy Hunt, vice president; Miss Ida Corey, secretary-treasurer.

A pleasant social time followed the business meeting.

Model Apartment Is Being Constructed as Rat Home; Yes, Rats

PHILADELPHIA—A pilgrimage of the rats of the United States to the Wistar institute here, where a $30,000 home for rats for experimental purposes is being built, would not be surprising should the news get to the ears of the country's rodents.

The new home for rats will be complete in every detail—as complete as if it were made for human beings, for it is from experiments with these rats that scientists learn of many ways to save lives of humans.

The home will include a gymnasium, where the rodents can take daily exercise; a hospital with a specialist and nurses; an isolation department for diseased and "nutty" rats; light and ventilating system; a dance floor; phonographs; choicest food, including French pastry; indirect steam heating; sanitary kitchen and dietary department; every room leading into the open, and other sanitary provisions.

What They Study

Some of the observations made in the study and experimentation with rats, according to Dr. Milton H. Greenman, director of the institute, are:

Rats are fond of music and the story of the "Pied Piper of Hamelin" might easily be true.

Contrary to general belief, rats like light and air and live in dark, filthy places only because of necessity.

Rats like the old-fashioned better type of music in preference to jazz.

It takes about three generations to develop the aristocratic rat from the rough-neck variety found in alleys and filthy places.

"The female of the species is more deadly than the male." They are harder to handle.

The male rat is a good family man. He has to be, for if he as much as looks at a female other than his wife, the latter makes it hot for him.

Much benefit is expected to be derived from exhaustive experiments which will be carried on at the institute.

DISCOVER BEARDED 'LADY'

OAKLAND—A beribboned boudoir cap, and lacy, feminine lingerie failed today to conceal Arnold McDonald, sought for alleged forgeries, when he attempted to elude officers. Police Inspector Joseph Engright found McDonald in his bed, with a boudoir cap on and fluttery garments flung over the chair at the bedside. McDonald's disguise fell down miserably, as he had neglected to shave.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervey Hosts at Dinner on Daughter's Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ervey of 416 Hawthorne street entertained with a dinner party Tuesday night in celebration of the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Mrs. Gilbert J. Heyfron of Hollywood.

This was followed by a theatre party in Los Angeles attended by Mr. and Mrs. Heyfron and Mr. and Mrs. Ervey.

Daughter and Dad Go on Hunting Trip

J. A. Rockhold and daughter, Leone, of 330 Burchett street, left Monday evening for the mountains near Calabasas where they plan to hunt deer. They motored to Bent's Crags and spent Monday night leaving early Tuesday morning, mounted on burros and traveling eight miles high into the mountains. They will make their headquarters at the homestead of Mrs. Edith Anker and hope to get back to Glendale Sunday night.

Mrs. David English Hostess at Luncheon

Mrs. David F. English of 437 Ivy street entertained yesterday with a very pretty luncheon. The table was centered with lovely pink and white asters. The guests included Mrs. Harry Boring, Mrs. Colin Cable, Mrs. Richard Gilbert, Mrs. Barton Mambert, Mrs. A. F. Chase, Mrs. Minnie C. Patterson, Mrs. E. D. Yard, Mrs. George Lyons and little Bobbie Lyons. Mrs. English was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Oliver.

GLOVES ON FIGHTING COCKS

An English farmer was recently haled into court and fined on the charge of keeping a place for the purpose of cock fighting, but he made the defense that the sport as indulged in at his place was not an offense within the law, as the birds fought with boxing gloves instead of spurs.

Classified Ad and Orphan Cats Ought to Win Blue Ribbons

Mrs. Stella Goodman of 645 North Central avenue will enter two beautiful Persian kittens, one month old, at the Cat Show to be held in San Fernando, September 24 and 25. They will be listed as "The Orphans." Their mother, a beautiful registered Persian, died very suddenly when the kittens were one day old.

Mrs. Goodman, through a classified ad in The Glendale Evening News, secured a mother cat, under whose care the kittens thrived remarkably well and now show great promise of being able to walk away with blue ribbons, if they do not capture a cup.

Most Women Homely, Says This Professor

CHICAGO — A lot of women have fooled the boys for a long time, according to Prof. Carl N. Werntz of the Academy of Fine Arts here.

Ninety per cent of the women are homely,—that is, if you are able to see enough of them, Prof. Werntz declares, and that wasn't half of it.

The professor, who qualifies as an authority on women's dress and will advise hundreds of delegates to the Fashion Art League's meeting here next week, went bravely on record with the following statements:

"A woman is just like a house to be shingled—you have to find something which will harmonize with the structure and you have to get an artistic result somehow.

"Mystery is woman's chief power, and she knows it—that is why we will never have a nation of women wearing knickerbockers—they reveal too much.

"Each woman must deal with those portions of her body which in her case will create the impression of beauty—if a woman has an unattractive face, she may have—an excuse to wear short skirts.

"A woman who wears extremely short skirts, low-cut gowns and otherwise exposes her form, is acknowledging she cannot win the attention of mankind with less startling means.

"The illusion of beauty which 90 per cent of the women must try to achieve can be obtained by the combined effect of themselves and their garments.

"Garments are the important thing."

PALACE GRAND HAS 'MOTHER O' MINE' AS FEATURE

Latest Thomas H. Ince Drama Is Filled With Sacrifice on Part of Parent

A story of the world and its people, "Mother o' Mine," Thomas H. Ince's latest drama, is the feature at the Palace Grand for the week-end.

The plot, briefly, deals with the involved situations arising from the desires of Robert Sheldon, the only son of his mother; to seek the opportunities that the city has to offer over his native small town. His mother gives him a letter of introduction to a prominent wizard of finance, who is, unknown to the boy, his own father who has deserted his family years before under the drunken supposition that his wife's infidelity has made the boy the son of another.

Boy Accuses Father

The boy is given a position in the financier's offices, and unknowingly becomes the cat's paw of some doubtful business transactions. Discovering his situation, he accuses the financier, who, enraged because the boy has prevented the consummation of a big deal, viciously attacks his mother's name. A fight results in which the wizard is accidentally killed by his own revolver. From that point onward the mother moves into prominence, her unselfish sacrifice and determination constituting the basis of many suspensive situations.

"Miracles of the Jungle" will be seen on the same bill as another feature.

Stolen Auto Record Will Be Broken This Year, Now Predicted

That the present year will set a record in the number of autos stolen in southern California counties is indicated by figures just issued through the theft bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Gross carelessness on the part of auto owners themselves is considered to be the main reason for the success of auto thief gangs operating in this part of the country.

This carelessness includes kindergarten ignorance on the part of motorists regarding such simple information as the state license numbers on their car, motor number and even simple descriptions of the paint and general characteristics of their property.

It is pointed out in the auto club's report that while 1635 automobiles were stolen in the southern counties and particularly in Los Angeles during 1920, there have been 1259 cars stolen up to the present time this year since January 1. According to detectives employed by the club, this figure indicates that the record of 1921 will shatter that of last year.

The value of the cars stolen during 1920 in southern California by actual statistics is placed at $1,315,970.

It is stated that at least one-third of the number of motorists reporting the theft of their cars to the Automobile Club and the various sheriff's offices do not know the state license number on their number plates, and it becomes necessary for the authorities to wire Sacramento for such information. In this way a great deal of valuable time is lost which might better be employed in recovering the car and capturing the thieves.

Of course, say club officials, a large number of the stolen cars are recovered and a large number of thieves are apprehended every week, but activity along this line cannot materially cut down the number of auto thefts unless the owners themselves co-operate with the authorities in such simple details as keeping on file such information as is necessary for the identification of the stolen automobile.

That "time" is not an element in the recovery of stolen automobiles as it might be in other kinds of property is shown in the recent recovery of an automobile stolen in Los Angeles from Fred W. Eisele, three years ago. This car was found in a small village of Pennsylvania, after a search by Detective Hickok of the automobile club, covering a period of two and one-half years. It was found by means of an identification card issued by the owner through the automobile club.

Beginning next week printed cards will be issued by the club's theft bureau, free of charge, to all auto owners requesting them, on which vital information will be tabulated to be used by the detectives in case the car thus recorded is stolen. Every motorist is requested to avail themselves of the privilege of so recording their car and thus establishing a permanent record for finding it, should it be taken.

NINETY-FIRST DIVISION TO INVADE LOS ANGELES; SAY BUDDIE, LET'S GO! MAYOR ROBINSON'S PROCLAMATION

Wild West Contingent Credit To Homeland And Public Should Do It Honor, Says Glendale Official In Statement Made Today

THE ZERO HOUR APPROACHES! Los Angeles will be stormed Saturday afternoon and Sunday by the second annual big offensive of the Ninety-first division, the Pacific coast's own wild west contingent. The call to arms has already been issued. Soldiers are springing to the flag in California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Nevada and Wyoming. Meanwhile, veterans are on their way from Alaska while from Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana and Tennessee are coming members of the replacement units who took places of the fallen in France. Regimental colors are being unfurled for the grand parade.

Division headquarters are being established at Los Angeles American Legion Post No. 8, Third and Spring streets. Here buddies and pals who spent a season abroad, will meet once more and relate the adventures of peace; tell of the positions they are holding, the jobs they were promised and didn't get, the births, marriages, and deaths in their families, the homes they have bought, the hardships they have endured and the successes they have won since demobilization.

A hilarious and exciting time is being planned. Regimental banquets will be the feature Saturday night after which there will be programs at theatres and moving picture houses. For them the city of Los Angeles will be wide open. The 364th regiment, Los Angeles county's spcial pride, will dine at the Southern California Athletic club.

Formal exercises will be held Sunday afternoon at Exposition park at which the army will be represented by Major General William Wright and speeches will be made by Mayor Cryer of Los Angeles, and other dignitaries. The program will be followed by a social picnic.

Ah Boy! Those Memories!

Such memories! How can they help but recollect the camp, the transport, the fireworks, the trenches and best of all, the armistice? How can they help but remember the letters from home, their leaves of absence, the vin rouge and maybe, perhaps, a little vin blanc, and, most glorious of all, their homecoming?

Forty thousand veterans attended the reunion in 1920 at San Francisco, when a bathing girl pageant and an aerial circus were features of the entertainment, and it is expected that as many will attend the affair this year. They are coming from San Francisco by the boatload and from San Diego, Fresno, Sacramento and surrounding cities by auto and train. No matter how they come they'll be here.

Cooties are not bothering the ex-service men this week so much as moth balls. It is "Oh Mary, where did you put that outfit of mine last time we moved?" or "Ma, what happened to my overseas cap when I came back from 'Frisco last year?"

Now, Where's My Hat?

Finally the togs are found and then such a time getting them ready for service again. Is it still the nifty uniform that turned the heads of the girls in France—and maybe fluttered the hearts of a few at home? And then such a scramble to find a "tin derby!" Can it be possible that most of the souvenirs have disappeared already? The helmet, which he wrested from the head of a Heinie at the cost of his life, treasured through sun and rain and packed across land and sea back home—can it be possible that the "Mrs." is using it for a fern dish?

Well, the veterans are unanimous that the battles of peace are almost as exciting as the thrills of war although perhaps not so dangerous. Anyhow, they have decided to fall in once more and count off at the grand reunion.

In honor of the approaching event Spencer Robinson, mayor of Glendale, has issued the following proclamation:

This From Mayor Robinson

"Citizens of Glendale: The second annual reunion of the Ninety-first division will be held in Los Angeles Saturday and Sunday near the anniversary of the date on which the soliders in it valiantly advanced into the battle line and courageously did their bit—nay thrice their bit.

"This Wild West contingent, recruited from the far west, was indeed a credit to its homeland. Our country can never forget the eagerness with which its boys sprang to the colors or the dauntless intrepid-Their individual names may be forgotten but the memory of their actions will live forever in history.

"The battlefields of France contain the graves of many of our boys. The vacant ranks of the parading regiments at their glorious homecoming disclosed where comrades had been left "over there." In their memory this is a time of prayer and tribute. Let us do honor to those who paid the supreme sacrifice.

Do It Now! He Urges

"The Pacific Coast, however, should not wait until the next generation before doing honor to its sons. Flowers for the dead and friendliness for the living! The present is the time to welcome these veterans to our midst for their annual battle of peace. The present is the time to extend to them the glad hand. The present is the time to rejoice with them and for them.

"The annual reunion of the Powder-River Division is one of the greatest events of the year. It brings together the men who fought side by side in France; it revives old memories; it keeps alive that unquenchable spirit that typifies the west—the spirit that brought victory to the Allied arms—and it presents an opportunity of doing homage to our Gold Star Mothers and their gallant sons.

"Glendale should join with Los Angeles in the spirit of the occasion. We may welcome the boys to our vicinity and voice an appreciation of their actions in No Man's Land. Let us permit no selfish motives to interfere with the success of this reunion. I respectfully ask that all Glendale employers co-operate to this end by granting leaves of absence to those of their employees who desire to attend the Los Angeles ceremonies.

"As mayor of Glendale it is, indeed, a pleasure to extend the key to our city to veterans who may care to visit our municipality. It is my personal wish and the hope of our citizens that they will enjoy every moment of their coming scramble over the top and return to their homes imbued with the spirit of the Southland.

"SPENCER ROBINSON."

Municipalities Help to Reduce Accidents

Recognition of the efforts of the Automobile Club of Southern California to reduce accidents has been gained by action soon to be taken by various municipalities in the southern part of the state.

Although the lead in the attempt to stop reckless driving is to be taken by Mayor Cryer of Los Angeles, the effort is to be general instead of specific on the part of the police court judges in Southern California cities particularly and in the various sheriffs' offices.

Reckless driving, it is pointed out, is a matter of individual inclination rather than epidemical, and it is with the individual that the police judges are planning particularly to deal. A spirit of recklessness evidenced by boyish drivers of trucks and delivery wagons, while not participating in accidents themselves, is communicated to motorists who would otherwise be law-abiding drivers.

In St. Louis a campaign against thoughtless operators of motor cars has been steadily conducted over a period of years and it is only recently that results have been obtained there, so that at the present time St. Louis is said to be the safest city, trafficly speaking, in America. Chief credit for its safety is given to the stern and fair attitude of its police judges in dealing with traffic offenders.

Out of 10,000 traffic law violators who appeared before Judge Mix of that city, only four were repeaters, according to a report received by Automobile club officials.

Checks are to be kept in various police courts throughout the southern part of the state on traffic law violators which it is hoped will be instrumental in the conducting of a general campaign to stop reckless driving, not only on city streets but on suburban highways.

"Cops" have no authority unless they are backed up by the police courts, according to their own testimony, and it is the plan of the police courts from now on to back up the "cop" who is stationed as a motorcycle officer on the highways or in a blue uniform on the city streets.

F. P. Newport Home From Hunting Trip

F. P. Newport of the F. P. Newport company, owners and developers of Verdugo Woodlands here, returned from a two weeks' hunting and fishing trip with two friends and he was out at the foothill tract yesterday inspecting the street improvements under way. He reports that they bagged the limit of deer and enjoyed a great time in the wilds. Their itinerary took them to the Mono Lake country back of Independence, also Bass lake and Yosemite national park.

Glendale Guardsmen Practicing Football

Glendale guardsmen, members of the Fifth Separate company and battalion headquarters, are indulging in sports every Monday and Wednesday night, it being Lieut. Normal C. Several former varsity men at Glendale Union high school are members of the military organization and take great interest in remaining under the tutelage of their old coach, Lieutenant Hayhurst.

J. V. Zimmerman to Have Work at Home

A new oil station is now under construction at 900 San Fernando road by S. S. Beran company for J. V. Zimmerman of Watts. One of the features of the building is the eight-inch hollow brick wall which economizes on space as well as improves the temperature of the interior, according to the builder. A small garage is also being built on the rear of the lot and Mr. Zimmerman expects to have a $6500 home started on the same property before long.

America has one boom at present; in legal business. Courts and lawyers never before were so overworked. Broken contracts and bankruptcies are largely responsible.

'WITHOUT BENEFIT OF CLERGY,' IS FILM LYRIC

Glendale Theatre Shows Kipling Story of Man's Love for Hindu Girl

If Rudyard Kipling had never written any other story than "Without Benefit of Clergy" he would still be one of the great authors of the world.

If every one of the greatest features that have ever been made were wiped out, "Without Benefit of Clergy," as shown at the Glendale Theatre yesterday would, in itself, proclaim the greatness of the art to future generations.

In its revelation of a wonderful love; in its amazing power to move the human heart; in its intensity of emotion; in its superb acting, its mysticism and its colorful and perfect presentation; in its very simplicity, "Without Benefit of Clergy" stands alone. It is the screen's greatest triumph.

Bought Girl with Gold

It tells the story of the love of an Englishman for a Hindu girl, whom he bought with gold. It was but an episode in his life, but it was her whole existence. As transferred to the screen from Mr. Kipling's own scenario, it grips the emotions with an even greater intensity than the story.

Enough cannot be said of Virginia Brown Faire as Ameera. It is hard to believe she isn't really the dusky-skinned, adoring, sixteen-year-old heroine.

"Golfing" is the name of the comedy which precedes the feature and with Brownie, the wonder dog, and Baby Peggy as its stars, it is a sure fire hit. This stellar bill closes tonight.

HARRY HARPER HAS HAPPY GRIN AND REAL ABILITY

Southpaw Seems Able to Guide New York Yankees Away From Deep Darkness

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Last year a left-handed Moses went to Cleveland and led the Indians to a pennant.

This year it seems that another southpaw might be able to guide the footsteps of the New York Yankees out of the darkness in which they long have been floundering.

Laughing Harry Harper, who drew laughs from the wise ones when Miller Huggins picked him off the chute last winter, is playing the role of Walter Mails, the Cleveland saviour of 1920.

Harper, with a broken finger sustained early in the season, polished a seat in the dugout until a few weeks ago when Huggins had to use him in a pinch.

Showing Great Form

He's working regularly now and turning in games regularly.

The smiling southpaw has not only turned in his last four games for the New Yorkers, but has shown impressive form in every victory.

Babe Ruth, another southpaw of ability, warmed up yesterday for a half hour with Catcher Hoffman. Huggins perhaps may call upon the swat king to do a little mound work in the last hard mile.

The Yanks are again holding a slight lead with the help of the trusty Boston Red Sox, who knocked off the Indians with a late rally when it looked all against them.

The National League race again tightened up when the Giants were trimmed by the Cubs while Pittsburg was resting. The Giants now have a lead of three games.

Happiness---a Tonic

As the nurse handed her patient the lovely flowers a smile flitted over the wan face, the heart throbbed fuller, the blood coursed through the veins. The doctor came in just then. There was a new light in the eyes of the sufferer; an improved spirit that his practiced eye caught at once. "Better," he pronounced.

Happiness is a tonic that upbuilds cheer and strength. Flowers are its prescription. They flood the heart with sunshine even as they suffuse the sick room with their fragrance.

Aren't there friends whom you can help along the road of recovery with gifts of flowers?

Raymond Hitchcock Says There Ain't No U. S. Humor

NEW YORK.—"There ain't no American humor."

Raymond Hitchcock, famous comedian, speaking—seriously.

"And," he continued, "if this be treason, make the most of it."

"Hitchy" told the United Press in an interview today that Americans "have no sense of humor, only a sense of fun."

"A joke has got to be physical, not mental, for them to get it," he explained. "Our 'humor' is the pie-in-the-face kind—slap-stick stuff.

"Of course, we do have a small repertoire of stock stories—some that Cain used to spring on Abel—that we dust off every year and dish out to the public. They like them because they've heard them so often they understand them. You know the kind: "Don't the gas house smell lovely?' or some such. Surefire hit.

"So far as Americans are concerned, you know, a joke is like wine—it has to be aged to be appreciated.

"When you tell a story to an American audience you have to keep in mind that their average vocabulary is about 500 words, including papa, mamma, yet, no, prohibition, say, listen, and attaboy. In fact, our vocabulary has decreased in these post-Volstead days, many words becoming obsolete, such as highball, cocktail, haveanother, don'tcareifido, stewed and deetees.

"As a proof that there is no such thing as originality in the theatrical field, consider my own case. I break my foot. What happens? Fred Stone, Barney Bernard and all the rest of the boys break theirs. I go into bankruptcy. I pick up the papers and read that Lew Fields has stolen my stuff and gone bankrupt. Take my word for it, the whole profession will be broke before the end of the season.

"Humor? Originality? Bah! The American people won't stand for it!"

And "Hitchy" stalked out of the room with an expression on his classic features that would do credit to the heaviest villain on the stage.

TEACHES THEM TO TALK

SACRAMENTO—A pair of performing, educated dominoes of the galioping variety, were exhibited in police court here, and S. F. Taylor, accused of being their trainer, was fined a sum of $500. Taylor had in captivity several pairs of dice, trained and untrained. One pair was said by George Carpenter, a witness, to be physically abnormal and not "on the level" to the extent of $345 lost by Carpenter in their operation.

The most cultured pair, however, were students of higher mathematics, it was said, and were found to display a double set of fives. P. F. Hopkins, who had used them in a friendly contest on the state fair grounds, testified they were not built to win. Hopkins was also fined $25 and his experience.

THIS STORY FOR ANGLERS

DENVER—A serious menace to fishing in southwestern Colorado has been discovered by sportsmen in that section and is puzzling officials of the state game and fish department. A very small animal, or bug, was noticed in the water of some of Colorado's best fishing lakes. It darts through the water and seizes the fish, according to those who reported the occurrence, and maintains its grasp, and the fish dies within a few minutes. The animal did not attack any fish more than six inches in length, nor did it eat its victim.

A number of specimens of the fish-killer were sent to the state game and fish department, where officials are trying to establish the identity of the strange animal. None of the specimens captured were more than four inches long.

H. E. CHANDLER DIES SUDDENLY AT HIS HOME IN L. A.

Former Resident of Glendale Passes; Funeral Services Will Be Held Friday

The sad news of the sudden death of H. E. Chandler, former resident of this city, was received by close friends of the family yesterday morning, Mr. Chandler having died on Tuesday night, September 20, 1921. According to Mrs. Chandler, she and her husband had recently moved into their new home at 716 East Twenty-ninth street, Los Angeles. As there were a number of odd jobs to be done at the new location Mr. Chandler got up from the dinner table on Tuesday evening, apparently in the best of health, and said that he was "going out to the garage to fix up some uncompleted work."

After her husband had been gone an unusually long time and when no sounds could be heard from the garage Mrs. Chandler became anxious and walked to the small building, where she found Mr. Chandler in a prone condition. According to physicians, who were immediately summoned to the scene, death had been caused by the rupture of one of the valves of the heart.

Leaves Five Years Ago

Mr. Chandler was one of the oldest and best known residents of Glendale until five years ago, when he moved to Los Angeles. He was engaged, both in this city and in Los Angeles, in the painting contracting business. He was one of the first members of the Glendale Elks lodge.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon, Friday, at 2:30, at the parlors of the J. D. Farris Undertaking company, at Tenth and Flower streets, Los Angeles. Services will be the Elks ritualistic services, conducted by the officers of the Glendale lodge.

Missing Witness In Arbuckle Case Found by N. Y. Detectives

By PAUL R. MALLON
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Lowell Sherman, movie villain, wanted in San Francisco as a witness in the Roscoe Arbuckle case, was located today by detectives and summoned to the office of District Attorney Swann.

Sherman, who left the Twentieth Century Limited at Harmon, N. Y., yesterday while detectives were waiting for him at the Grand Central station, said he was perfectly willing to make a full statement disclosing everything that occurred at Arbuckle's "wild party" at which Virginia Rappe is alleged to have been fatally injured by Arbuckle.

Sherman indicated he was willing to return to San Francisco as a witness when the Arbuckle case goes to trial.

He denied he left the train at Harmon in an effort to dodge the police. He said all he wanted was to avoid newspaper reporters. Sherman denied also that he fled from San Francisco to avoid being called as a witness.

After leaving the train at Harmon he drove into New York in a motor car which was waiting for him. The district attorney, urged by the San Francisco authorities who were very anxious to have Sherman located, had men hunting him all night. The address at which he was found was not disclosed.

League of Nations Asks Intervention to 'Halt New War'

By HENRY WOOD
United Press Staff Correspondent

GENEVA, Sept. 22.—Immediate intervention by the allies to prevent the Serbo-Albanian dispute flaming into a new Balkan war was asked in a note addressed to the powers of England, France and Italy by the council of the league of nations today.

The threatened conflagration in middle Europe's powder box where the slightest flare can start another of the interminable Balkan wars, may be averted by the council's action, but the league itself has been split into two factions by the introduction of the dispute between Albania and Jugo-Slavia in the assembly.

The allied members of the league council, moreover, are lined up against the non-allied, temporary members. Lastly the allies themselves are divided into two camps over the question.

Albania's appeal to the league declaring that Serb artillery was bombarding Albanian villages and demanding that the league intervene was answered by the Serbian representative to the assembly who said the borders of Albania not having been fixed, Serbia was only attempting to occupy what rightfully belonged to her.

The Germans plan to withdraw from Silesia—everything.

In Southern California

Tries Unpatriotic Politics

Citizens of the Ninth congressional district are stirred today over reports from Washington indicating there is an attempt under way to unseat Congressman Walter F. Lineberger. Silas J. Garrett of Tennessee, democratic floor leader, introduced a resolution instructing the judiciary committee to ascertain whether any member of the house is holding a commission in the army. Lineberger holds a commission in the engineers' reserve corps and under the army reorganization bill, the reserve corps was made a part of the regulars.

Unemployment Conference

Henry M. Robinson, president of the First National Bank of Los Angeles and the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank, left yesterday for Washington to attend the president's unemployment conference, taking with him a complete survey of the labor situation in southern California.

Mr. Robinson's report to the unemployment conference will show that southern California not only is the business white spot of the United States, but it is also the white spot so far as employment is concerned.

Third Line Land Defense

Definite steps for the formation of the nation's third line of land defense—the reserve—has been taken by the army authorities in the west, with the designation of the quotas and location of units of the Ninety-first reserve division. A board consisting of Colonel Ernest V. Smith, U. S. A. infantry; Colonel Thornwell Mullally, field artillery reserve corps; Major David P. Barrows, infantry reserve corps; Major Jefferson J. Graves, field artillery reserve corps; and Major Robbins Little, adjutant general reserve corps, met in San Francisco September 12 to 14, and detailed the skeleton organization of the division.

New Occidental President

Dr. Remsen D. Bird, new president of Occidental college, welcomed the student body yesterday morning at the opening of the fall semester for 1921.

Dr. Bird announced that the enrolment now is 425, exceeding that of last year. Dr. Bird also presented seven new professors, Dr. Walter F. Clayon, Dr. Joseph Lafosse, Dr. Benjamin F. Stelter, Dr. Frederick L. Bird, Dr. W. L. Thornton, Mrs. H. A. Fiske and Fred McLain.

League of Municipalities

Preference of public or private control over power developed from Colorado river sources will be one of the biggest questions discussed at the convention of the California League of Municipalities, six sections of which will meet Tuesday in the Santa Monica municipal auditorium.

Chicago Specialist Is Dead

Dr. A. L. De Souchet, Chicago specialist, died in Los Angeles during the night after a long illness. Dr. De Souchet was a cousin of John Hay, secretary of state during the McKinley administration, and was also said to be a direct descendant of Napoleon.

To Continue Bail Battle

The fight to obtain freedom on bail for Madalynne Obenchain will be carried to the state supreme court. This was the assertion today of Warren Williams and Ralph Obenchain, counsel for the young woman who is accused of complicity in the strange "midnight murder" of John Belton Kennedy, wealthy broker.

An initial attempt to admit Madalynne to bail failed in the district court of appeals in Los Angeles. Application for a writ of habeas corpus will be filed Monday in San Francisco before the supreme court, Williams said today.

Bankers and Stockmen Hold Conference Over Financing of Industry

FRESNO, Sept. 22.—Bankers and stockmen of the San Joaquin valley met here to discuss plans for financing the livestock industry during the present period of financing stringency.

The stockmen desire immediate funds so that they may not be forced to sacrifice their young stock.

An attempt will be made to negotiate a loan from a pool of $50,000,000 which has been definitely completed byeastern and western bankers for the assistance of banks in the cattle country.

Loans are being made on a six-months' basis, but may be renewed up to thirty months.

Holy Name Society to Hold Meeting Tonight

The Holy Name society will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at 827 East Lomita avenue, the parish rectory, for the purpose of discussing the bazaar to be held in two weeks in the new Catholic church building at Elk avenue and Louise street. Father J. S. O'Neill calls attention to the fact that the bazaar will be unique because it will be held within the church, which would be impossible if the edifice had been dedicated to divine worship.

Soap was placed in the basin of a volcanic spring in Iceland recently to induce a large geyser in the most important group to spout during the visit of the King of Denmark.

GLENDALE'S BEAUTY PUBLISHED BY NEWPORT CO.

Verdugo Woodlands Booklets to Advertise This City All Over United States

Advertising Glendale to the fullest extent, the F. P. Newport company has issued 10,000 sixteen-page booklets entitled "The Story of Verdugo Woodlands Told in Pictures." This is the first edition of 150,000, according to W. L. Twining, general manager of the Newport company, which placed Verdugo Woodlands on the market as Glendale's finest foothill subdivision.

Included in the book are pictures of the Brand boulevard business district, the Elks club, city hall, Methodist church, high school and library as well as many homes in the beautiful Verdugo Woodlands. It is a work of art and advertising combined.

For the tourist or home seeker who studies the pages of the booklet there seems to be but one desire and that is to see Glendale. In a statement of facts about Glendale, it says:

Pertinent Facts Printed

"In percentage of increase of population Glendale leads America in cities of its class.

"Glendale increased 400 per cent in population during the last decade.

"A city of multiplied marvels with 20,000 wide-awake people.

"Building permits during 1920 totalled $3,160,000.

"A white, immaculate city of cleanliness, comfort, refinement and contentment.

"A city of beautiful homes, well-lighted, best watered in the southwest, a city with low taxation, ideal managerial form of government by capable, conscientious men."

Nation-Wide Advertising

That is only a few of the many fine compliments paid this city in the booklet which is to be widely circulated. According to Mr. Twining it is his intention to place copies on every Chamber of Commerce information desk in America.

Greatest of all, however, is the message which is carried forth which can be summarized in the words of the writer as follows:

"Go and live where your kiddies are welcomed—where they'll grow strong and sturdy. * * * Go and see a foothill suburb that far surpasses Hollywood or Altadena in diversified scenic charm and particularly in climate, elevation and mountain water. * * * Foothills and forgetfulness, sunsets and silences, hearts-ease and "hominess."

Well Known People Are Attracted Here, Asserts Guy Wilson

"The number of well-known people who are coming to Glendale to look around now is really remarkable," remarked Guy Wilson, 226 South Brand boulevard, yesterday. "Some of them are buying for investment purposes and others intend to build here. They seem to be realizing that Glendale is the most desirable community in southern California."

Mr. Wilson states that he has a real estate deal in progress now with "a woman who is as well known as President Harding." He also declares that he has a client who intends to establish a shirt factory.

Additional Strikers Are Sworn In for Oil Field Guards

TAFT, Cal., Sept. 22.—(United Press)—Several hundred additional oil field strikers were sworn in as special deputy sheriffs and constables today and added to the law and order guard which is keeping strike breakers out of the petroleum districts.

This followed reports that the oil companies would hire large gangs of strike breakers and order them to smash through the strikers' lines and resume operation of the wells closed down by the workers.

The strikers were still in control of the oil fields today. Their sentries, all of whom are special deputies, were on duty on all roads leading into the district, holding up and questioning all who sought to pass. Inside this cordon, companies which have signed an agreement with the strikers were permitted to continue operation of their properties. The others were closed down.

ALL NORMAL AT RIVERSIDE

RIVERSIDE—The return to normal conditions, which economists predicted, is now complete in Riverside. Calpurnia, the musical feline, is back on the job. The serenading cat, whom all had thought to have disappeared with the war, for several nights has been giving nightly concerts on her old stand from the fence on West Sixth street, it is reported.

Be Careful! Dreaded Dictagraph Might Be Concealed In Parlor!

By CARL VICTOR LITTLE
United Press Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Fond Chicago parents now chaperone their flapper daughters by dictagraph.

The mechanical device has been put into operation to supplement the heavenly vigil kept over working girls and others.

Gone are the days when a stern matron sat in the parlor while the household pet entertained her dashing young suitor.

That custom was tabooed when young men refused to call on chaperoned daughters, it is believed. That chaperone was often complained on, usually because they did all the talking and ate most of the bon bons. But now, take it from Mrs. Alice Clemens, veteran Chicago policewoman, the dictagraph is being used in many of our best families.

"Thunders of Silence"

"The instrument is being strung behind the davenport or the piano," said Mrs. Clemens, "and the receiving end is upstairs.

"The parent, who has a perfect right to use whatever device she sees fit to protect her daughter, is at the other end.

"Unless wire trouble intervenes, the person at the receiving end usually knows what is going on in the parlor.

"If the young folk keep on talking, it is all right, but if there are thunders of silence its the parents' cue to enter and usually the young man's tip to depart—hastily."

And woe be unto the young man who registers a loud smack over the wire.

FACE IS 'TRAVELING CHECK'

SEATTLE—Judge Alfred K. Nippert's face, if not his fortune, is at least his travelling expenses. He and his two sons came all the way from Cincinnati to Alaska on the credit of his honest looks. Judge Nippert of the court of common pleas, Cincinnati, with his two sons started west all regularly provided with funds and everything for the journey.

But at Minneapolis a Pullman porter had an inspiration and intervened in the scheme of things. He unloaded their baggage and transferred it to another train by a mistake. The baggage contained their tickets, baggage checks and practically all the money they had with them. Judge Nippert was not baffled. He explained the situation to railroad and hotel officials at the various points of the journey, with the result that they crossed the continent and sailed for Alaska on the City of Seattle, without dispensing a cent—except in I. O. U.'s.

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.—Advertisement.

MOTHER OFFERS CHILDREN

SEATTLE—Last night Mrs. Margie Lawson, 106½ Taylor avenue, put her four children to bed hungry. So she has decided to rent them. She wrote to a local newspaper as follows:

"Please, will you help me find homes for my children? My husband went to Yakima looking for work, and fell sick and is there without a cent. I want to give the children away for the winter—till we can get back on our feet again. I will help to pay for their clothes and food, as far as I can, if I can find places for them with honest private families."

Blistered hands, caused by handling of pick and shovel after months of striking, made it necessary for thousands of Nottinghamshire coal diggers to lay off for a few days until they became hardened to the work. Coal dust entering the blistered hands caused intense pain.

MESSAGE OF BOOST IS PRESENTED TO READING CIRCLE

Mrs. A. M. Rowe, Who Soon Leaves for East, Calls on Members to Be Active

The regular meeting of the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle, which was held in the library yesterday, Mrs. A. A. Barton presiding, was largely attended, there being about sixty-five members present. Twelve new members were taken into the circle, which now has a total membership of about 140.

Communications were read from Mrs. Charles H. Toll and from Mrs. R. T. Burr, the latter of whom is recuperating from illness. Rev. R. W. Mottern spoke in behalf of the Near East relief.

Mrs. A. M. Rowe, who leaves soon for the east, left the following message for members of the circle:

BOOST

"Boost and the world boosts with you;
Knock and you're on the shelf.
This "Circle" gets sick of the one who kicks,
And wishes he'd kick himself.
Boost when the sun is shining.
Boost when it starts to rain.
If they won't join this fall, don't lie there and bawl,
But get up and boost again.
Boost for the town's advancement,
Boost for this "Circle" sublime.
For the lady that's found on the topmost round,
Is the booster every time."

In the afternoon the reading of the book "All the Children of All the People" (Smith), was begun by Mrs. H. V. Henry. The chapters read stated in part that everyone is born short in some special thing. Some are short in reading, others in music and some in mathematics. The author did not believe that a child should be humiliated in those shortages, but should be given an opportunity to make good in the things in which he is interested.

Barnes-Shuck Music Company Has Agency for Famous 'Pathe'

"The Actuelle is the most radical phonograph departure in some time," remarked Fred B. Shuck of the Barnes-Shuck Music company, 211 North Brand boulevard, last night announcing the firm's acquisition of the Pathe agency for Glendale. "The new machine does away with the reproducer, tone arm and tone chamber. The tone is not muffled in a horn or sound box. It is as if an orchestra or soloist were right there in the same room. The music is diffused evenly in all directions by the Actuelle."

The brightly-polished, dazzling saxophones reposing in the display window of the Barnes-Shuck Music company are the property of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wells, 462 Burchett street, who are known as "The Apollo Duo" and expect to give some recitals in Glendale this winter.

Federal Investigator Leaves for Coast to Probe Arbuckle Case

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—W. C. Dannenberg, investigator for the Department of Justice, left here for San Francisco to assume charge of the Federal angle in the "Fatty" Arbuckle case.

He will head the agents now endeavoring to learn where the liquor for the Labor Day party came from.

Dannenberg formerly was city morals inspector here.

BATTLES AGAINST SMOKES

TULARE—James W. Campbell, who during the war offered $5 to the Red Cross on the proviso that that organization devote its energies to preventing smoking in public places, desires to have the fair grounds grandstand barred to smokers. Campbell suggested that one section might be reserved for those who do not object to tobacco smoke. But this time no pecuniary inducement accompanied his suggestion.

SECURE WOMEN MUSICIANS

ST. LOUIS—Women will supplant men in the orchestra pits at the Garrick and Gayety theatres, both burlesque houses, this fall. Labor trouble between the operators and unions in other cities caused the management to take the step. Both of the houses are operated under the Columbia Wheel circuit, with headquarters in New York.

THIEF HAS CONSIDERATION

PASADENA — Now comes the Thief Considerate. A dozen stamped and addressed envelopes in the side pockets of Miss L. Kitsman's automobile, stolen here, were all mailed by the thief, police learned. The envelopes bore the Altadena postmark.

Glendale Youth Is Chosen as Secretary and Treasurer of Freshmen Students

Included in the beginning class are approximately 100 students from Glendale, sixty-eight of them being members of last year's graduating class of the local high school.

Chester Weaver was originally a member of the class of 1919 at the Glendale Union high school, although his course was interrupted during the last part of 1918 when he enlisted in the United States navy.

Receiving his discharge from the service two years ago he returned to Glendale and completed his high school course.

Last year he remained at the local institution, where he took a post-graduate course.

Death's Toll From Germany's Explosion 1500, Is Estimated

By CARL D. GROAT
United Press Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, Sept. 22.—Penetrating the fog of poisonous vapor which still hovered over Oppau, scene of the greatest explosion disaster in German history, rescue corps, gas masked, today fought for the lives of possible survivors, while reports came that the death roll would total at least 1500.

Five hundred bodies have been extricated from the shattered ruins about the synthetic nitrate plant of the Badische Analine works near Ludwigshafen, which was destroyed, together with the little town of Oppau, by a series of terrific explosions yesterday morning.

Scores of injured were taken from the wreckage far from the scene of the original explosion, but it was feared that all those trapped in the fatal area had been killed by poisonous fumes, which yesterday prevented rescue work.

Piteous scenes were witnessed at the cemetery at Mayence, where bodies of nearly 200 dead were laid out for identification by relatives. In most instances, the victims had been so mutilated by the explosions that they could not be recognized.

Investigation as to the cause of the explosion will be started at once. Rumors blaming the bolsheviki and other enemies of Germany for the disaster were current here and near the scene of the disaster were unconfirmed.

The first explosion occurred at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning while a change of shifts was under way. It was followed an instant later by another more terrific, which actually lifted the main factory building from the ground, hurled chimneys, machinery and men hundreds of feet into the air, completely buried and destroyed three shift trains bringing workmen to the factory and was felt for a distance of fifty miles around. All workers in and about the plant, about 800 in number, were killed. Further explosions followed.

The Rhenish high commisisoner has allocated 100,000 marks for relief work in Oppau, the little village which was completely destroyed. The French supply corps near the scene of the disaster has opened free food kitchens and shelters for refugees.

Three hundred bodies have been identified and hundreds of others found were mutilated beyond recognition.

At Ludwigshafen, the huge hospital, all the schools and many public buildings have been requisitioned by the Red Cross.

French Commerce Is Returning to Normal

PARIS—Steadily, France's production, as revealed in her exports, is climbing back to the pre-war level.

Customs figures for the first six months of 1921 show a total exports of 7,325,952 tons, as compared with 10,050,486 during the same period in 1913 and 5,523,481 during the first half of last year.

Imports decreased by 6,073,334 during the last twelve months, dropping below the figure for 1913.

In the industrial regions the return to pre-war production is being rushed. New factories are being built upon the ruins of the old, and new machinery installed in the buildings left standing at the armistice. In Lille, for instance, nearly all the factories have now resumed operations.

Gradually smokestacks and new red brick building fronts are becoming more and more numerous up and down the old battle line.

They Eat Too Well; Girls Become Alarmed

PHILADELPHIA—"Eat scientifically and grow fat."

That's the advice of the 940 employees of the Federal Reserve bank here, who have, collectively, gained 10,000 pounds during the last year. The increase in weight is all due to the scientific restaurant which was installed for the employees.

Most everybody is pleased over their gain in weight, except some of the women employees, of which there are 375. Some of those who aren't so anxious to get fat have figured out that if they gained more than ten pounds the first year, that in five years they will have taken on fifty pounds, and in ten years 100 pounds. These individuals are getting frightened at the prospect of getting offers to join a side show.

The directors, a year ago, decided that rushing to lunch, swallowing food whole, and eating improperly prepared food was bad for the employees, and they couldn't work so well. So they have been given plenty of time to eat their food, and it is prepared under the supervision of an expert dietician. Lunch costs just 25 cents, including dessert.

But—some of the girls are worried, and one said she'd have to quit eating lunch altogether.

A NEW PRICE FOR WIVES

THE PAS, Man.—What is the commercial value of a beautiful wife? The question has divided learned jurists through the ages. But Eskimo land has its own fixed rates. John Littlebear is a trapper. He resides in the frozen stretches to the north of the Brochette fur post of the Hudson's Bay company. John recently disposed of four wives in twelve days. All being especially beautiful, he received the top market price. Each wife brought one pound of tea and two plugs of tobacco.

"Dropping off ballast," was John's laconic explanation to interpreters. There was a glut of wives and not a leaf of tea or tobacco. One by one the dutiful wives were dropped.

Purchasers, reports say, were fellow tribesmen returning from the fur post heavily laden with supplies. They had long admired John's handsome wives anad were ready bidders.

Wages of one cent a month are paid to Germans who are shipping at German ports on America-bound vessels, according to the chairman of the Shipping Board. Until a treaty is signed with Germany it will not be legal for German citizens to enter this country. It is expected that a bill will be introduced in Congress requiring foreign seamen to register on their arrival here.
